CAI members including condominium board members, professional managers and business partners from around New England make CAI New England one of the most diverse and largest chapters in the country.

VOLUNTEERS MAKE TIME

Hundreds of volunteers make time in already busy schedules to serve on chapter committees. Why? - Because it's an investment that returns dividends not attainable in any other community association industry forum.

- Volunteers grow their network of peers, colleagues and resources.
- Volunteers learn about community associations.
- Volunteers give back to their profession and the industry.
- Volunteers are involved in industry activities that are meaningful and important.

Committees are open to CAI New England chapter members in good standing and may have other member qualifications. Policies regarding attendance and maximum number of members may also apply. Contact the chapter office for more information 781-237-9020 x13.
